

CV Lorenzo Spedini

Born in Cremona -Italy- in the 1974.

Graduated in Civil Engineering in 2000

From the year 2000 founded the company Ecomembrane with n 2 other engineers with the scope of developing the concepts of inflatable roofs for gas storage.

In 2016 Graduated in Tensile Structure Engineering from the TU-WIEN (Technische Universiteit of Vienna) after 2 years of master classes.

From the year 2000 to the year 2021 he developed the company first in Italy and later in Europe and around the world.

In 2012 He founded Ecomembrane LLC, a fully owned branch located in Little Rock AR USA that does the same products as the Italian firm.

During the 20 years of growth of Ecomembrane He developed many specific technical solutions for the membrane gas handling and measuring, with the outcome of more than 10 patents.

Today, he is still the CEO of the Ecomembrane group (Italy + USA) with total personnel of around 60 people and a global presence in more than 40 Countries.